

Great Base-Ball Match.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Pursuant to a call of the Presidents of all the Base-Ball Clubs belonging to the National Association of Base-Ball Players, a meeting was held, and the following brief will give you all the particulars, which will be of considerable interest to the public. They selected the Fashion Race Course, Long Island, it being neutral ground, and sufficiently large to afford room to 50,000 spectators at least 10,000 can be supplied with seats and see the players—there has been special provision made for ladies accompanied by gentlemen. A large awning will be spread in front of the ladies' stand, under which there will be room, with seats, for several thousands. The proprietor of the Course has assured us that no intoxicating liquors shall be sold on the Course, and no gambling of any kind permitted within or about the grounds. Arrangements have been made with the Superintendent of the Flushing Railroad to run extra cars, if necessary, to and from the Course. Extra stages also will be furnished at the Williamsburg ferries. Each Club belonging to the National Association has been requested to furnish ten members, making a special force of two hundred and fifty to attend to guests and preserve order. They will be under the immediate charge and direction of the Sheriff of the county, and will be designated by a badge. The Mayors and Common Councilmen of New-York and Brooklyn, together with other specially invited guests, will occupy the large stand, usually appropriated to the judges, on the Course. A suitable place has been provided for those who may wish to remain in their vehicles. There will be a nominal charge of ten cents for each person entering the ground, and an additional fee of twenty cents for each one-horse, and forty cents for each two-horse vehicle, to defray expenses. The surplus funds will be equally divided between the New-York and Brooklyn Clubs, and by them presented to the widows and orphans of the Fire Departments of the two cities. The match is between nine selected players of New-York, and nine from Brooklyn, members of the National Association. The game will commence at 2 o'clock P. M. on the 13th inst. Should the day prove stormy, due notice will be given through the Press by the Committee when the match will take place.
