

Base Ball.

ATLANTIC, OF BROOKLYN VS. LIBERTY, OF NEW-BRUNSWICK.

Last week these Clubs played a tie game on the Liberty ground, and on Monday they appeared on the Atlantic ground to decide the question of superiority, when the Brooklynites came out ahead after a very short game, the rain interrupting it for a time. The pitching appeared to get the best of the batting, not much being done in that line. The following is the score:

ATLANTIC.	Outs.	Runs.	LIBERTY.	Outs.	Runs.
Price, 1st b.....	2	4	Van Nuise, 3d b....	2	3
Pierce, short.....	3	1	H. Cortelyou, 2d b..	3	2

Umpire—Mr. S. Davenport, of the Hamilton Club.

Scorers—Atlantic, Mr. George W. Moore; Liberty, Mr. W. H. Hatfield.

SAMS', THE CRICKETER'S BENEFIT.

Sams is very sick, and the cricketers of Long Island have got up a match—eleven Americans vs. eleven English, which will be played at East New-York, on Wednesday, for his benefit.
