

Base Ball.

OAKLAND VS. POWHATAN.

A match was played between these Brooklyn clubs on the 19th inst., resulting in a tie. The play on the part of the Oakland was splendid; Ogg, a first base, catching every ball that came near him. The third base was splendidly played by MURTHA, who caught some balls that seemed almost an impossibility; his throwing to first base was as well as we have ever seen any senior player do. The Powhatan played very well also, though they did not seem to be as strong as usual, two of their men being absent, but their substitutes, YELLOTT and EABLE, did better than could have been expected; EABLE pitched finely, and put out several on slips. YELLOTT played well at centre field. McCARTHY played the first base in good style, as also did BROWN on the second.
